

Consent to personal data processing

1. By accepting the terms of this Consent, you confirm and acknowledge your consent to processing and transferring your personal data by ENCE GmbH production and engineering company located at Landweg 1, CH-6052, Hergiswil, Switzerland (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) in order to provide you with maintenance service, arrange your orders for industrial equipment supply, as well as provide various reference information and / or advice.

The Company processes the obtained personal data only for the purposes specified in this clause of this Consent.

2. The personal data is provided when you fill out the enquiry form on the corporate website of the Company www.ence.ch, and includes the following information: name, surname, corporate phone number, corporate e-mail address, and other data you specify.

3. The Company collects, systematizes, accumulates, records, stores, clarifies, blocks, updates, deletes, destroys personal data, as well as transmits information to its employees, affiliated companies and third parties, if the need in such data arose during performance of obligations including cross-border transfer.

4. The Consent is effective for 5 (five) years, or until withdrawal in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Consent.

5. Based on a written official request of the personal data owner with the requirement to clarify/block/stop the processing of his/her personal data, the Company undertakes to change/stop its processing within 5 (five) business days.

6. The text of this Consent can be changed without notice to the personal data owner. The new version comes into effect from the moment of its posting on the Company's corporate website www.ence.ch. The personal data owner agrees and accepts the terms of the new Consent, or in case of disagreement is obliged to notify the Company.

7. If there is evidence of the Company's fault, its liability is limited to 500.00 (five hundred) Swiss francs.